Guidelines: The aim of this template is to identify core foresight and innovation/entrepreneurship competences in relation to knowledge, skills and social competences that a future-oriented manager should possess. The source of data for the analysis are key books in the field and the other printed works on foresight and entrepreneurship (even popular-scientific studies), as well as peer review articles coming from leading journals such as Technological Forecasting and Social Change, Futures, Long Range Planning, to name but a few. Each partner involved in the task (universities) is free to select at least ten articles/books on the subject matter. The partners are also free to add any relevant articles/books. In the first place, we suggest to work on the publications which deal with the convergence among futures studies, entrepreneurship and innovation. In case of difficulty with the identification of core foresight and innovation/entrepreneurship competences in these sources, we suggest to work on the articles/books from three fields of expertise (namely foresight, entrepreneurship and innovation) separately.
